

Subject: The Weekly Blast

Ladies and Gentlemen,

The Weekly Blast:

The California Highway Patrol will offer driver-safety classes for teenage drivers. These free Start Smart classes will be held from 1745 to 2000 on Wednesday 30 JUN, Tuesday 13 JUL and 29 JUL at the Carlsbad Police Department, 2560 Orion Way, Carlsbad.

The program is for new and future licensed drivers between the ages of 15 and 20. Parents or guardians are required to attend the class.

To reserve a seat, call Officer Eric Newbury at (760) 757-0824 or myself per the information provided below. See enclosed Flyers for more information.

The Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America (IAVA) is looking for soldiers, sailors, airmen and Marines in the southern California area who are interested in attending a San Diego Padres game on July 4th or a Los Angeles Dodgers game on July 5th. We will also be offering more free tickets that have been donated to IAVA throughout the summer months.

The tickets are provided free of charge and each service member may bring up to 3 guests. All we ask is that they sign up on our website, www.TheRucksack.org. If they are not already a member of IAVA they will be prompted to sign up. Membership with IAVA is required to receive tickets and is free of charge. IAVA will never give out member information to any external parties.
